North Fourth Avenue Merchant's Association, Inc. (FAMA) provides one Emerging Artist booth to a local artisan each street fair. The application must be submitted by the deadline to be considered for the Fair. Applications submitted after the deadline will not be considered.

STREET FAIR RULES

- Emerging Artists can only offer products that they have personally created. Photos showing a representation of the artists' work must be provided with the application.
- Emerging Artists will be gifted one 10 x 10 booth.
- The Emerging Artist booth must be occupied by the chosen artist. It may not be sublet, shared, or otherwise used by anyone other than the emerging artist for any reason.
- Merchandise cannot be set up on sidewalks. Any merchandise that is blocking sidewalks or any other street fair walkway will need to be relocated inside the Emerging Artist booth.
- The Emerging Artist is responsible for proper insurance and protection of their products and equipment during setup, throughout the Fair and load-out. The Fair is not responsible for any damage to property due to weather, unrelated incidents or acts of God. General security is provided 24 hours during the show. If additional security/accommodation is required, arrangements must be made prior to set-up. The cost of the additional security must be paid by the artist.
- Emerging Artists are expected to comply with all Fair and government regulations. FAMA reserves the right and responsibility to ensure compliance with all regulations. Failure to comply and cooperate with Fair Staff will result in removal from the Fair with no refund and suspension of rights to exhibit in future Fairs.
- All applicants are required to check in, prior to setting up, the location of check-in will be sent out at a later date. Set-up must be completed by 9:00am on opening day, at which point no more vehicular traffic will be allowed on the avenue for the duration of the fair. Booths must be open by 10:00am and remain open until the official close on all three days. Booths must claim their assigned booth space no later than 8:00am on Friday, or it may be forfeited.
- FAMA reserves the right to use photos, names, and information on the emerging artist for promotional use.
- The Chief Operations Officer and/or the Events Director are the final arbiters of all Fair rules, and all their decisions are final.
